

Dentist Wins Golf Tourney At P.V. Club

Dr. Jack McLenaghan captured the Bicuspid Open at Palos Verdes Country Club Sunday, besting Tom Allen and Jim Walsh in a playoff. The San Pedro dentist carded an even-par round in extracting the victory. He was awarded a filled wallet for his efforts.

Montgomery Awaits Opener

Bishop Montgomery will open his Camino Real League baseball season at Daniel Murphy High Friday afternoon.

IT'S FISHING TIME . . . One of the attention getters at this year's Los Angeles Sportsmen's Vacation and Travel Trailer Show, March 25 through April 3, at Pan-Pacific Auditorium, is the Huck Finn Trout Pond. Getting in a little practice here are Susie Poulillo and John Saldana.

Trout Fishing Pond Featured at Show

Luscious, pan-sized, eat-in trout are daring sportsmen to catch them at the Los Angeles Sportsmen's Vacation and Travel Show at Pan-Pacific Auditorium.

As a special feature of his 21st edition of the world-famed display of outdoor gear and sporting goods, Producer H. Werner Buck has set up a "Huck Finn" Pond, a miniature lake of clear, cold trout water on the Pan-Pacific grounds. It is stocked with three-to-the-pound trout. Visitors to the Sportsmen's Show will take 15 minute turns matching their skills against the trout.

Boys and girls are especially encouraged to try the Huck Finn pool, where tackle is furnished. Don Allen of Anaheim, many times the world champion in bait casting and flycasting, is on hand to give fishing advice to the youngsters.

Allen also presents exhibitions of trick casting.

The 1966 Sportsmen's Vacation Show brings together more than $15 million worth of boats, motors, campers, camping gear, outdoor cooking equipment and sporting goods. In addition, some $2 million worth of fishing tackle is displayed on famous "Tackle Row," the spiritual home of all fishermen during the run of the show.

Track and Field Can Be Exciting Once in Awhile

Domination of Marine League track and field by Los Angeles Jordan High is in jeopardy Thursday afternoon when the Bulldogs take on a favored Gardena squad. The showdown will be at Jordan which has been the perennial champion every year except 1957 and 1960 since 1950. Gardena's big threats are Louie Carter, 9.8-21.9 sprinter and 19.2 low hurdler; Wayne Collett, junior who was city 440 champ last year and has marks of 21.8 in the 220, 49.1 440, and 1:58.5 880; miler Daryl Kelley (50.7 in Mike Howard, 1:59.2 half-

50-foot shot putters, led by Emmet White (53-2) and Glenna Wallace (53-0); several good long jumpers, topped by Robert Mason (22.9, 23.6 '65); and at least two solid high jumpers, one of whom is city champ Albert Harris (6-4, 7 1/4 '65). City 100 champ Richard Townsend (9.6 last year, 9.8 non-winning this year) has been slow to get into shape after a flu bout and the rest of the team hasn't yet jelled, although hurdlers Herman Franklin (15.0-20.1) and Larry Springs (15.2-20.3) have improved rapidly.

Swim Meet Set Friday

Second-place Long Beach City College will visit El Camino College Friday for a 2:30 p.m., Metropolitan Conference swim meet.

The Vikings will send a group of tough freestylers against the Warriors. Top men for LBCC are Dick Chapman and Dennis Putnam.

Craig Hendrickson leads the El Camino team.
